

Dickey Rural Networks Community Portal Terms and Conditions

Dickey Rural Network's community portal (<http://drtel.net>) contains the terms and conditions that govern use of the portal's service.

Posting to the Portal

Information for community calendar can be submitted to the Site Administrator. The Administrator will review the request within 48 hours, and the submission will be posted or more information will be requested (if information submitted is incomplete, confusing etc.).

When posting to the portal, the following actions will result in the submission being denied:

- Typing in CAPITAL letters. It is hard to read and is considered as SHOUTING.
- Indulging in any activity that may adversely affect the usefulness of the portal, such as the posting non-existent events or bogus classified ads.
- Impersonating someone, including any friend, relative, neighbor or anyone involved in the portal.
- Posting chain letters or pyramid schemes.
- Posting any comments or use expressions of a discriminatory nature which may be racist, sexist ageist or homophobic.
- Swearing or use vulgar, abusive or offensive language.

By your use of this portal, you do agree that you indemnify all concerned in running, hosting, maintaining and authoring the portal against any legal action of any kind whatsoever and that you will pay all legal fees, loss of income and any other costs involved should your actions, deeds, words, omissions or anything else you do while using this portal.

You also indemnify all those involved in this website against any other costs your actions might incur.

We reserve the right to remove any community calendar events which we consider inappropriate for any reason whatsoever and to deny further access to the appropriate registered user or member.
