

Henriëtte Bersee is Counselor for Housing, Spatial Planning and the Environment at the Royal Netherlands Embassy in Washington, D.C., a position she has held since January 2008. From 1999 through December 2007, she served at the Ministry of Housing, Spatial Planning and the Environment in The Hague, where she headed the International Energy and Climate Change Department. Ms. Bersee was the Netherlands' chief negotiator on international climate change agreements until December 2007. From 1983 to 1999, she worked for the Ministry of Economic Affairs, dealing in industry policy, international economic relations, and export promotion. Between 1992 and 1995, she was posted at the Netherlands Embassy in Mexico as head of the Economic Department. Ms. Bersee holds a degree in Public Administration.